Dear KSIS Contacts,

I apologize for the short notice; however, we have an emergency fix to the nonacademic report. Some districts had been getting blank reports in the batch queue. This RX will correct the issue.

The production release of E.1242.10 is scheduled for 7:00 Central time 8:00 Eastern. You will experience intermittent access to your site during the update.

Please let us know quickly if this time will not work for your district.
